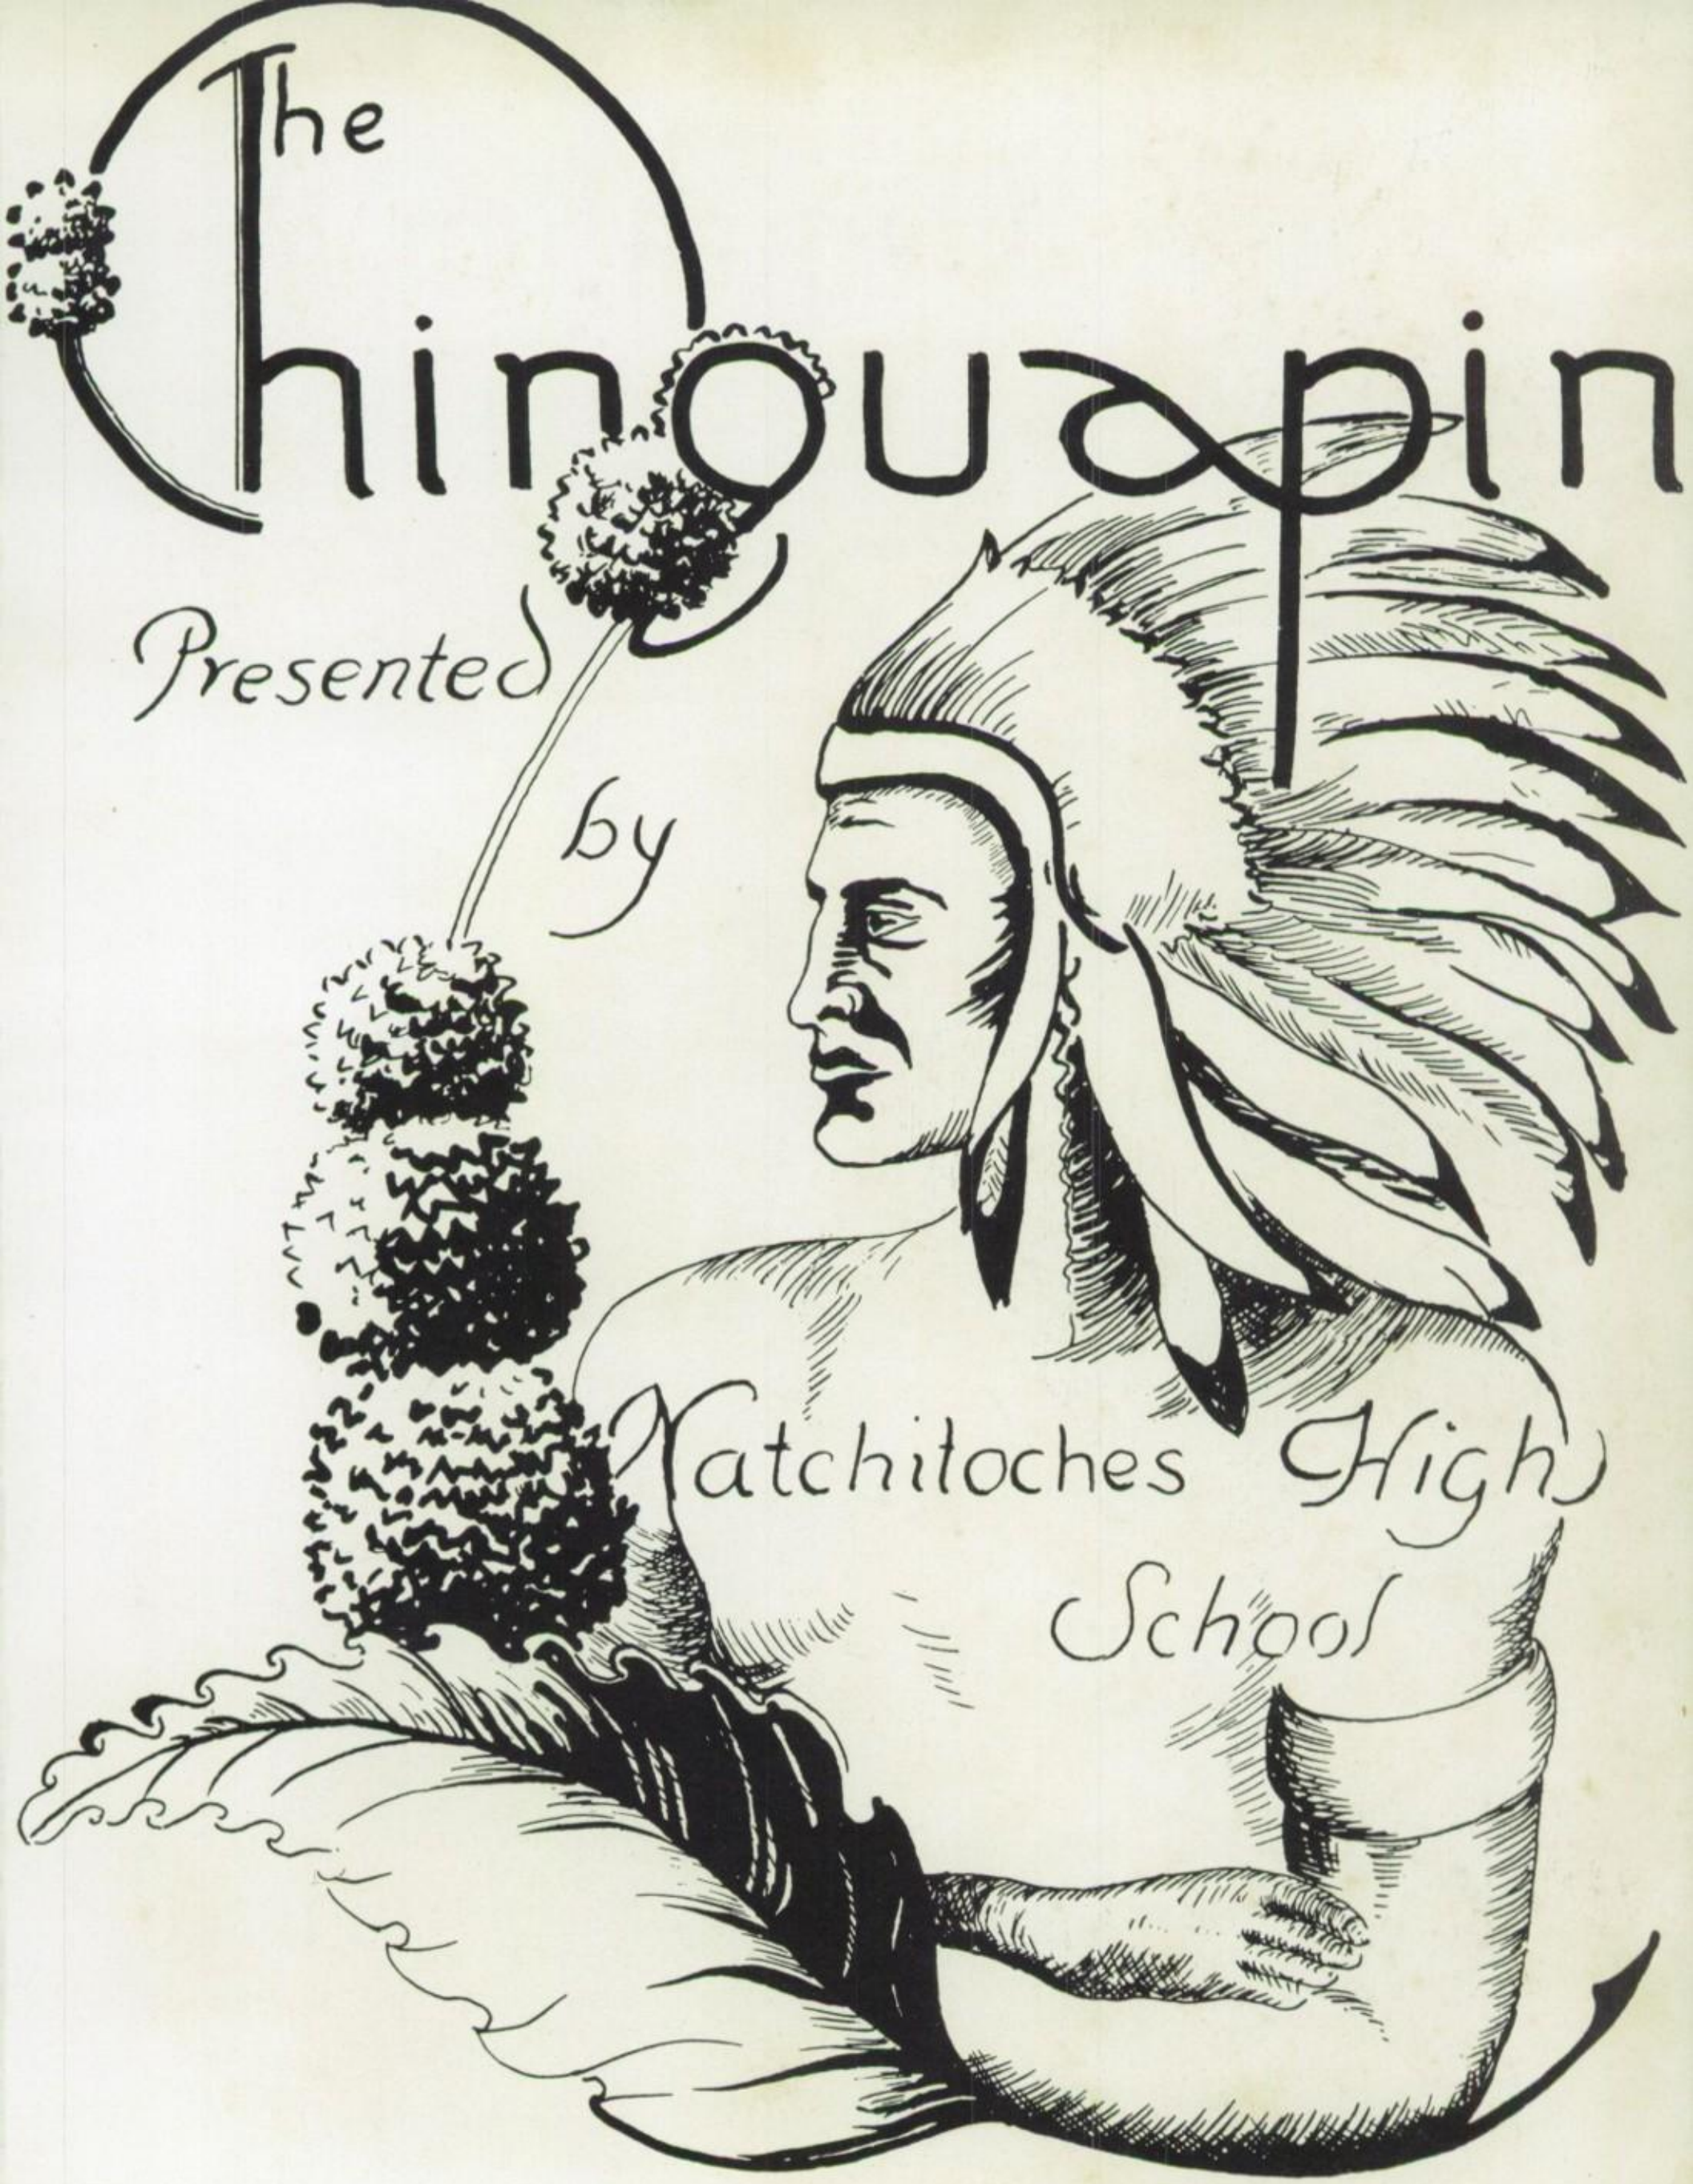
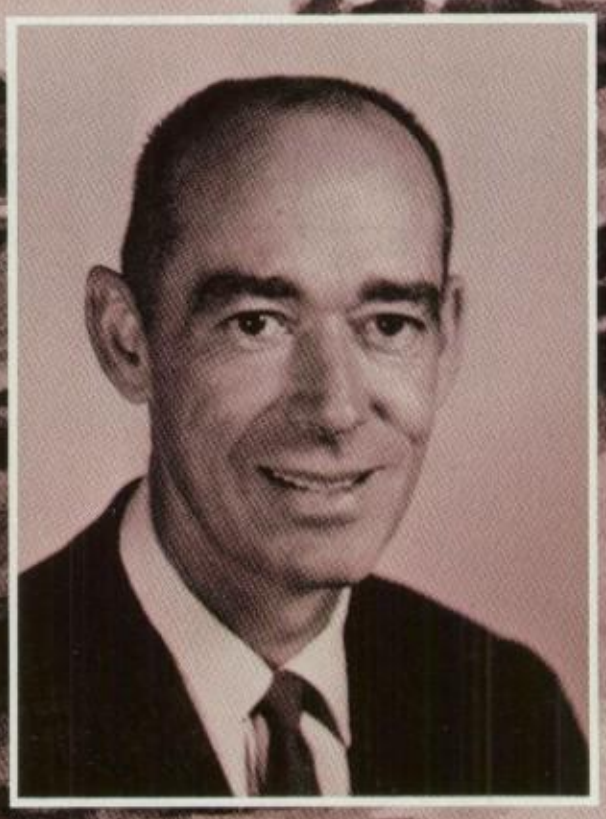
Presented by



Natchitoches High School

Dedication

1714 – 1964



Mr. Wallace Van Sickle

It is with great pleasure that we honor here one who, though he has not worked with every N.H.S. student, has enriched the high school life and memories of all of us through the accomplishments of his labor, his ingenuity, his skill, and his dedication to our band. He spends endless extra hours after school and even during vacation practicing with the band members, individually and collectively. His patience in inexhaustible; his warm interest in each band student, his untiring efforts to help each one, and his keen sense of humor have endeared him to us. Always upholding the highest ideals for his students both in music and in personal behavior, he is able to bring out the best in each and to instill pride of accomplishment in all. Under his expert direction and guidance, his group has achieved a record of six consecutive sweepstake wins (superior ratings in three phases of band work)—an accomplishment which is presently a state record.

The pride, admiration, respect, and gratitude that we feel for him can best be expressed as we dedicate this, the 1964 Chinquapin, to

MR. WALLACE VAN SICKLE

Foreword

This year of 1964 holds particular significance for our school and our city: two hundred fifty years ago Cavalier Louis Juchereau de St. Denis and his small brave band of men found here the headwaters of possible navigation on Red River and established a fort—an outpost of French influence—as a deterrent against any further Spanish expansion eastward. And Spanish colonization did stop at Los Adaes, fourteen short miles to our east. It is impossible to estimate the effect of his act on American history.

Since 1714 many other highly significant events have centered here in Natchitoches. Without trying to commemorate each one, we, the Staff of the 1964 Chinquapin, have taken as its motif that fort and the passage of years—1714 to 1964. Just as we shall always especially enjoy our memories of this school year, so too shall we recall and cherish the long, eventful past of our city, Natchitoches.
